We are so grateful that you have joined us today. We thank you from our hearts for your presence, both today and in our lives. Pray for us when you think about us. Please join us for the reception afterward at Donahue's Banquet Hall. ~ Shawna and Carter

I hold your hand, you hold mine back,
I share my chips, you share your snack.
We laugh at nothing, we cry at the same.
Today we rejoice. . . We share our name.

The years fly by, together we'll live,
To hold, to share, to laugh, to give.

For today we are One.
